6324 N Parker Ave Indianapolis IN 46220

Dear Cy Marlow, (L.J. Michaels, Inc.) and Staff,

I felt the need to write this letter to you and your staff in efforts to show the appreciation I have for you and your company.

I have been closing in your office for about two years now. Your whole company has treated me with such great respect, you especially, its really not something I am used to these days. I hate to say this, there are a great number of people who sell REO properties, who are not as nice or professional. I find it stressing at times to have Real Estate Agents to be so rude to me when all I am there is to close the deal for the Title Company.

I understand I am the first person the realtor sees when closing the deal. I also understand that the process has taken a great amount of time and has put greater amount of stress on them and their clients. You have never taken the position of embarrassing me for either showmanship in front of your clients or just loosing all self-control because of the situation. I thank you for that.

I have no gains from this letter except to make you smile as you have allowed me to when ever I am at your closing table. I am sure I am not the only one who appreciates your abilities to have a professional attitude no matter the situation. Your staff as well should be well recommended.

Thank you Sincerely,

Bill McCammon
